By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thirteen persons died violently in Arkansas over the weekend, five of them killed by the same freight train in two separate accidents Sunday.

The 13 fatalities brought Arkansas' total of violent deaths for the week ended at midnight Sunday to 28. Eleven died in traffic accidents.

A Cotton Belt freight train killed three Negroes in a pickup truck at Stuttgart, then a short time later killed a mother and her baby daughter as they ran onto the tracks at Altheimer.

A light plane crashed at Paragould Sunday, killing Mrs. Lavon Kelley, 25, of West Helena and critically injuring her husband, 28, and their son, Allen, 7.

Killed in the train-car wreck at Stuttgart were Mrs. Cleo Smith, 46, Eliza Smith, 48, and Flavella Ranson, 16, all Negroes of Almyra. Killed at Altheimer were Mrs. Charles Farrer, 26, and her daughter, Charlotte, 2.

Six persons died in shootings during the week, two in falls, and one each in an industrial accident and an overdose of aspirin.

A coroner's jury ruled Saturday that Frank House, 64, of Thornton, was accidentally shot to death while hunting. Officers said he was shot by his brother-in-law, Loyce Summers, 26, of Bearden.

Franklin Foltrop, 17, and Don English, 16, both of Searcy, were killed Saturday night when their car missed a curve and overran several times 10 miles north of Searcy on state Highway 16.

A car driven by James Rogers, 45, Negro of Cotton Plant, went out of control on state Highway 17 near Cotton Plant Sunday and plowed into a crowd of men standing beside the road. James Hudson, Negro, 65, of Forrest City was injured fatally and four others were hurt.

Johnny Haynes, 49, Negro of Altheimer, was found dead in his car Sunday with a bullet wound in his chest. Police said a Negro woman said she shot Haynes after he broke into her house. No charges were filed immediately.

Harold Randall, 26, of Hot Springs on state Highway 7.

David Moore Jr., 38, Negro of Little Rock, was shot and killed Saturday at a North Little Rock Cafe. Police held Calvin Cook, 36, Negro of North Little Rock, on an open charge.

Miles D. Downs, 82, Ex-Officer, Dies Saturday

Miles D. Downs, aged 82, a long time resident of Hope, was found dead in a pasture near his home late Saturday. Mr. Downs was a retired officer, having served with the Hope Police Department for many years and later was employed by the Arkansas Highway Department.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Ernie Downs of Hope and Herbie Downs of Bullard, Texas; daughter, Mrs. Gracie Brill of El Cajon, Calif.; two stepchildren, Mrs. Inez Taliaferro of Hope and Joe Bob Stewart of Grand Prairie, Texas and a brother, Jim Downs of Hope.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Hickman-Corpus Chapel by the Rev. R. B. Moore. Burial will be in Evening Shade Cemetery.

Death Rode Sun. With Cotton Belt Engineer — Train Hits Two Vehicles, Killing Five

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — Death rode with engineer J. U. Rector in the cab of Cotton Belt engine 830 Sunday.

The engine, pulling a long string of freight cars from St. Louis to Pine Bluff, Ark., crashed into a pickup truck at Stuttgart, killing three Negroes and seriously injuring a fourth.

Less than three hours later, Rector's train ran down a young mother and her baby daughter when they dashed onto the tracks at Altheimer, 20 miles further down the line.

"I was so helpless," Rector said. "There just wasn't anything I could do in either case."

"I've been railroading for 36 years and this is the first time anything like this ever happened to me. But it really happened big."

He said the train's speed was 55 miles per hour at both accidents. State Police said both mishaps appeared unavoidable.

Cotton Belt officials said they couldn't recall any other train that had been involved in two such accidents in one day.

Rector, 50, lives in Pine Bluff and makes a daily run to Jonesboro and back. At Jonesboro, he "deadheads" in railroad parlance. That is, he gets off the northbound train and engineers the first southbound train back to Pine Bluff.

State Police said the pickup truck tried to beat the train across an intersection, was hit, and dragged almost a mile.

Killed in the truck were Mrs. Cleo Smith, 46, Flavella Ranson, 16, and Eliza Smith, 48, all of Almyra, Ark. The driver, Cleo Smith, 55, of Almyra, was critically injured.

After a two-hour delay the train continued. At Altheimer, Mrs. Charles Farrer, 26, dashed onto the tracks after her two older children who ran in front of the train. They reached safety but Mrs. Farrer and her daughter, Charlotte, whom she was carrying, were killed.

"I was just thinking about the Stuttgart wreck when the woman jumped out in front of me," Rector said. "There's not much a man can say or do in a case like this."

Blytheville Safety Record Broken

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Blytheville ended 735 days without a traffic fatality Sunday when a 14-year-old boy was killed in a motor-cooler-car collision.

Van Allen Vowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vowell, died in a hospital four hours after the accident.

Police said young Vowell's scooter collided with a car driven by Ralph E. Johnson of Blytheville.

U. S. Space Project Is Criticized

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP) — That cloud of needless United States unloading in the heavens has turned out to be a storm cloud.

For the first time, a U.S. space project is being criticized not because of its lack of scope or success but for its very nature.

The criticism began even before a Midas satellite shot into orbit from this Air Force launching site Saturday. Aboard were 350 million tiny copper needles. They were released at an altitude of 2.10 miles and the hope is they eventually will spread out and form a belt around the earth.

Scientists think radio signals can be aimed at such a belt and bounced halfway around the world.

"Some people," including the Soviets, vigorously oppose the experiment.

The Soviet news agency Tass calls the project "anti-scientific" and says it was undertaken "in spite of the fact that many scientists of the world protested against these American plans, stating that they will create difficulties in exploring cosmic space."

Other critics include some astronomers who believe the needles may interfere with optical and radio observations of stars.

The project was undertaken with approval of the White House, which last Oct. 4 released a report on the matter by a special panel of the President's Science Advisory Committee, which said in part: "Visual, photographic or photo-electric observations from the ground will not be affected."

Local Couple Injured in Auto Wreck

A series of accidents in this area over the weekend left several persons injured and resulted in heavy property damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill of Hope were seriously injured late yesterday when the car in which they were riding collided with another driven by Willie Bettie, Negro, at Avenue H and Dewey St.

Mr. Hill sustained facial cuts and a back injury. His wife suffered internal injuries. Following treatment at a local hospital both were taken to a Texarkana hospital for special treatment. City Officers Martin and Milam said there was heavy property damage.

On the Palmos road at 23rd St. an auto driven by Andrew Jones, Jr. went out of control and overturned four times. Jones suffered cuts and bruises and was taken to a local hospital for treatment. City Officers charged him with reckless driving.

Also Sunday on Third Street driven by J. E. Carlson of Little Rock and Ben McRae, Hope, collided with only property damage resulting, said officers, Martin and Milam.

Late Sunday on an old Proving Ground road near Washington, cars driven by Clarence Hendrix, 11, 3 and A. Hittiche of Blytheville, collided with heavy property damage. State Policeman Guy Downing said nobody was injured but the cars were practically demolished.

On Third Street Sunday cars driven by Lera B. Collier, Hope, and Donald Johnson of Pontiac, Mich., collided. Only minor damage resulted, according to Officers Martin and Martin of the City Police.

Affirms U. S. Power to Crush Any Aggressor

By BARRY SCHWEID.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, backing a Pentagon official's declaration that the United States has the retaliatory power to crush any aggressor says any U.S. approach to negotiation with the Soviet Union would be from a position of strength.

Rusk emphatically identified himself Sunday with the assessment of U.S. military power by Roswell L. Gilpatrick, deputy secretary of defense. In a speech Saturday night, Gilpatrick said the United States "has a nuclear retaliatory force of such lethal power that an enemy move which brought it into play would be an act of self-destruction on his part."

Appearing on a television interview program — ABC — "Issues and Answers" Rusk was asked what made it possible now for the administration "to speak out so confidently and positively" on U.S. military power.

"I think this is a point about which there ought to be more general public understanding, because when you are in problems of negotiation, the question inevitably comes up from time to time whether you are negotiating from a position of strength or of weakness or whether you have cause to be nervous or confident," Rusk replied.

"The point is that the United States and its allies are strong. Mr. Khrushchev must know that we are strong, and he does know that we are strong."

At the same time, Rusk discounted speculation that the U.S. position had hardened in its approach to a Berlin settlement.

Rusk said he went over the speech with Gilpatrick before the defense official delivered it at a meeting of the Business Council at Hot Springs, Va.

Even before Rusk made public his approval of Gilpatrick's statement, it was obvious that the speech was prepared with the sanction of the White House and State Department. In answer to a reporter's questions, a Pentagon spokesman said Saturday that the Gilpatrick text had been given "the highest possible clearance."

Tanks Brought Up After New Border Clash

BERLIN (AP) — The United States protested to the Soviet Union today against the behavior of East German border guards who Sunday night halted the top State Department official in Berlin at the entrance to the Communist-ruled sector, officials reported.

American troops with fixed bayonets had to escort E. Allan Lightner Jr., deputy chief of the U.S. mission, to insure passage of his private car through the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint into the Soviet area.

The protest was made in writing by the U.S. commandant, Jam. Gen. Albert Watson II, to the Soviet commandant in East Berlin, Col. Andrei I. Soloviyev, a U.S. spokesman said.

Only a few minutes later, the East German Communists announced that Allied personnel in civilian clothes in future must show identification papers to Vopo—People's Police — guards when entering East Berlin.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay earlier had called "irresponsible and illegal behavior" the action of the East German police in Sunday night's incident.

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The Swedish news agency said tonight that Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky, Soviet minister of defense, confirmed that a 50-megaton bomb has been exploded over the Arctic. The agency gave no further information.

The Moscow bureau of The Associated Press said it had no confirmation that Malinovsky had made such a statement.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet news agency Tass said tonight that Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky, in describing anti-aircraft and anti-rocket defense, declared today: "The problem of destroying rockets in flight has been successfully solved."

The observatory at Uppsala, Sweden, said today's explosion was twice as heavy as any recorded for previous Soviet tests in the series that began last month.

The explosion also was recorded in France and Japan.

Premier Khrushchev told the Communist party congress last week that the current series of Soviet tests probably would conclude at the end of this month with the testing of a thermonuclear device equivalent to 50 million tons of TNT.

Some versions of Khrushchev's speech had the explosion pegged for Oct. 30 or 31.

A storm of protest against plans for the blast has been building up in the United Nations and elsewhere in the world. Thus the Soviet Union conceivably could have decided to go ahead with the test ahead of the scheduled time.

There was no confirmation of this, however, from Moscow or any other source within the first few hours after today's blast went off.

Dr. Arthur Barth, of the Uppsala Seismological Institute, said he found reason to believe today's explosion was of a 50-megaton bomb. But in Washington an AEG spokesman said:

Rosy Picture of Arkansas
Industrially

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A rosy picture of Arkansas' industrial growth in the past decade is painted by the current newsletter of the state Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber statistics show the state's manufacturing payroll for the first quarter of 1961 nearly double that of 1951, increasing from $45.1 million to $85.4 million.

Lee County showed the greatest percentage gain, rising from $18,400 in 1951 to $226,000 this year for 1,228 per cent.

While nearly all the state's 75 counties showed an increase in the number of industries during the decade, 10 suffered payroll cutbacks.

Perry County which dropped 89 per cent below its 1951 output, had only a $6,000 payroll.

Other counties showing losses were Calhoun and Newton, 55 per cent; Lafayette, 24 per cent; Woodruff, 16 per cent; Miller, 17 per cent; Nevada, 16 per cent; Stone, 14 per cent; Cleveland, 11 per cent; and Garland, 5 per cent.

And in the decade, the state's industrial income surpassed agriculture for the first time.

Super Bomb Is Exploded as World Protests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Soviet Union set off a giant nuclear explosion today.

A Swedish expert said there is reason to believe the bomb was at or near the 50-megaton range, promised by Premier Khrushchev.

A spokesman for the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission suggested caution in speculating about the explosion until more information becomes available.

The observatory at Uppsala, Sweden, said today's explosion was twice as heavy as any recorded for previous Soviet tests in the series that began last month.

The explosion also was recorded in France and Japan.

2 Day Meet to Tribute
Rice Crop

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — A two-day commemoration of the adoption of rice as a plantation crop in the South ends here today.

Several hundred persons gathered at the Charleston waterfront Sunday to watch a reenactment of the arrival of the first bag of seed rice from Madagascar in the 17th century.

A cast of 40 donned 17th Century costumes to put on a scene from the play "A Seed of Plenty," by Pence James of Chicago.

Principal characters in the play are Capt. John Thurber, who delivered the first rice seed here 75 years ago, and Dr. Henry Woodward, the first plantation owner to plant rice on the new continent.

Thirty-five paintings were on exhibit at the waterfront, all created in a contest for the best pictures to depict the harvesting and planting of rice.

A commemorative plaque was placed at Charleston's Adger Wharf, telling of the arrival of the first rice.

Growing of the crop in low South Carolina country has been revived since World War II, and plantings have been made annually since then.

Hoffa Files $1 Million Suit

DETROIT (AP)—James R. Hoffa and his Teamsters Union filed a million-dollar libel and slander suit today against AFL-CIO President George Meany and 24 other top AFL-CIO officers.

The suit, brought by Teamsters President Hoffa in U.S. District Court, charged Meany with trying to "lie and steal away" members of the Teamsters Union.

Meany and the codefendants, the suit said, conspired to portray Hoffa as "perpetrator of a fraud upon the American labor movement."

This was done, the suit added, as a "smoke screen to conceal the true picture of the defendant, AFL-CIO, as a tottering house of

Dr. Baath said:

"If today's explosion took place in the same area and at approximately the same altitude as earlier tests, the power of the bomb must have been considerably stronger than any previous Soviet nuclear detonation in the Novaya Zemlya area.

"This blast must have been registered 'round the globe.

"The estimated epicenter of the explosion was located in the general direction of Novaya Zemlya. It was situated 1,300 miles north-east of Uppsala in the area used for earlier Russian atomic experiments.

"The explosion was registered on the Uppsala seismological apparatus as twice as heavy as the most violent previous Soviet tests on last Sept. 10 and Oct. 6."

The explosion was registered at 9:35.51 a.m. Swedish time, or 3:34.41 Eastern Standard Time.

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP)—The Soviet Union is believed to have exploded its superbomb, the Uppsala University observatory reported today.

Dr. Arthur Baath of the Uppsala Seismological Institute said a violent explosion was registered at 9:35.51 a.m. Swedish time (3:35.51 a.m. EST).

"The estimated epicenter of the disturbance was located in the general direction of Novaya Zemlya, 1,300 miles northeast of the earlier used testing area in the Arctic," the Swedish scientist said.

PARIS (AP)—French atomic detection services said an extremely powerful nuclear blast in the Soviet Union was recorded today. A spokesman for the French atomic energy commission said it probably was the explosion of the Soviet Union's 50-megaton super-bomb.

Zoning Ordinance Upheld by Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today upheld a provision of Forrest City's zoning ordinance which restrains commercial reconstruction in a residential area.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Moffatt appealed to the Supreme Court from a St. Francis Chancery Court order prohibiting them from rebuilding their combination home and meat market after it was heavily damaged by fire in July, 1960.

Both courts cited the ordinance which prohibits reconstruction of a non-conforming building which has been damaged more than 60 per cent.

The Moffatts added the meat market to their home in 1954. The area was classified residential by the 1959 zoning ordinance.

Heart Valves of Silicone, Dacron

CHICAGO (AP)—An artificial valve made of Dacron and silicone rubber has proved highly satisfactory in replacing defective human heart valves, two Georgetown University surgeons reported today.

The operation corrects a heart condition caused by a malfunction of the aortic valve.

Drs. Charles A. Hufnagel and Peter W. Conrad of Washington, D.C., described the technique in an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

The surgeons reported they have replaced defective valves in more than 100 patients. The subjects gained relief from chest pains and labored breathing and were able to return to normal activities, the doctors said.

The artificial valve is sewn or sutured inside the heart or aorta in an operation that takes from 15 minutes to an hour. The body's normal circulation is performed during this time by a heart-lung machine.

Spa Annexation Upheld by Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today upheld the annexation of over 700 acres of Katanga announced today and said any Arkansas city has the right to annex a well populated, contiguous territory needed by the city.

The unanimous decision by Justice Ed F. McFaddin upheld a Garland Circuit Court decision which had affirmed a county court order approving the annexation.

McFaddin said the desires of residents in the territory involved are not a determining factor.

The opinion stated further that the high court found the area in question contained stores, banks, schools and other businesses and the city of Hot Springs had demonstrated it could provide water, fire and police protection.

Virus Claims 2nd in Family

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP)—A second member of the Tom Westbrook family, which was stricken by an unknown virus over the weekend, died in a hospital today.

Dr. George McPhail, the family's physician, reported the death of Ruth Westbrook, 9, and said an autopsy would be performed.

McPhail said a younger sister, Sherry, 7, died Saturday.

Still hospitalized are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Westbrook and their son, Johnny, 5. The doctor said the family is now out of danger.

The Palestine, Ark., farm family was stricken with violent stomach cramps and nausea and were all rushed to a hospital Friday.

Funeral arrangements for the two young girls are incomplete.

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—A Special election on a $900,000 bond issue to help finance a county hospital has been set for Nov. 28. He said news of the attack reached him just as his Cabinet was considering the central government's reply to his proposals for economic union with the rest of the Congo.

Tshombe said the central government forces crossed into Katanga near Kapanga and Kanima, both towns on Katanga's northwest frontier.

The rescue was carried out smoothly in calm Caribbean seas. Chief engineer Rodizza Napale was killed and eight crewmen injured, but there were no reports of casualties among the 400 passengers.

Ileo said if necessary the central government will call on the U.N. Security Council, presumably for sengers. The Bianca C. was on a regular run from Naples to La Guaira, Venezuela, with calls at ports in the West Indies. Most of the passengers were reported to be immigrants to South America.

Missile Launched From Submarine

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The advanced A2 Polaris missile was launched for the first time today from a submerged submarine.

The 31-foot rocket was fired from 90 feet beneath the Atlantic by the USS Ethan Allen as the big submarine cruised about 50 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral.

Results of the test were not immediately available, but the missile appeared to perform normally.

This was the second Polaris launching from the Ethan Allen, largest of the nuclear subs built to carry the missile. Last week it successfully fired an A1 model from beneath the sea.

The A2 is 2½ feet longer than A1 and is designed to strike targets up to 1,725 miles away. The A1 missile, now deployed aboard five Polaris subs, has a reach of 1,380 miles.

UN Planned to Request No Explosion

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.N. members neared a vote today on whether their first appeal against nuclear weapon tests should be against all of them or just against the Soviet Union's threatened 50 megaton blast.

Denmark proposed that the 101-nation Political Committee vote first on a seven-nation resolution appealing to the Soviet government not to explode the giant bomb which Premier Khrushchev last week said probably would be touched off by the end of the month.

India wants the committee to vote first on its resolution urging all atomic powers to refrain from all further nuclear tests until a test-ban agreement is reached.

Britain and the United States are sponsoring a third resolution urging resumption of their negotiations with the Soviet Union for a test ban and calling for a progress report to the U.N. Disarmament Commission by next March. This resolution was submitted first, but the sponsors were expected to yield priority to the seven-nation resolution appealing to the Soviets.

The United States has told the committee it will not stop its underground nuclear tests again until a test ban treaty is signed and that it may have to start tests in the atmosphere. Britain agreed with this position.

There were indications something will happen this week to break the stalemate over election of a temporary secretary-general.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin told other delegates he is expecting fresh instruction from Moscow. U Thant of Burma, who is acceptable to both the United States and the Soviet Union for the interim appointment, said in an interview Sunday: "I think the atmosphere will be clear early this week."

Rental Barges May Be Tried

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Officials of a New Orleans barge firm report they will bring six barges up the Arkansas River to Little Rock Nov. 1 for rental purposes. By 1967, with the completion of a $1.2 billion river project, officials predict the barges will be able to penetrate the Arkansas as far upstream as Tulsa.

Ray Brown of the New Orleans firm said the 300-350-ton barges will be brought up the river on tow. He said they will probably be rented to contractors, oil companies and heavy equipment concerns. Facilities for docking the barges are being built, he said.

Dominican Rich Family Is Leaving

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Trujillo family's two luxurious pleasure yachts today were reported ferrying members of the dynasty into self-imposed exile from the strife-torn Dominican Republic.

Gen. Jose Arismendi Trujillo, a brother of the late Generalissimo Raphael Trujillo, reportedly boarded the luxury yacht Presidente Trujillo during the weekend and headed for some Caribbean port, presumably Martinique, to catch a ship for Spain.

The four-masted sailing ship Angelita, on which Hollywood beauties frolicked with the generalissimo's son Ramfis, was reported en route to Bermuda to pick up another brother of the assassinated dictator, Gen. Hector B. Trujillo, and his American-born wife, the former Alma McLaughlin.

But despite continuing unrest and the possibility that the 31 years of Trujillo rule might be drawing to a close, there was no indication that Ramfis—Gen. Raphael Trujillo Jr., the chief of the Dominican armed forces—had any intention of fleeing. Both he and President Joaquin Balaguer have rejected opposition demands that all the Trujillos and particularly Ramfis get out.

Rock-throwing mobs continued to battle police in at least two provinces, and at least one man was reported killed about 120 miles north of Ciudad Trujillo.

Dr. Jones May Leave Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dr. Granville Jones, who leaves as superintendent of the State Hospital Jan. 1 to become assistant superintendent, hints he may leave Arkansas.

Jones said Saturday he has received several offers from institutions outside the state. He returned recently from conferences in Baltimore and Omaha.

He indicated that he feels he had been demoted and said that's the word he received at both Omaha and Baltimore.

He added, the demotion would cost him nearly $6,000 a year in salary. His current salary is $19,500 plus full maintenance and a house.

His successor is Dr. George W. Jackson, superintendent of institutions in Kansas and former head of the Arkansas hospital.

State officials said they were asking Jones to step down for his health. They cited the pending $6 million hospital construction program.

Last year Jones suffered a heart attack but reports he is completely recovered.

Jackson is 47 while Jones is 61.

Man Killed in Wreck Identified

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—The identity of a second man fatally injured in a fiery car wreck near here Wednesday was established when James Otis Love of Benton identified his son Saturday.

The victim was Billy Charles Love, 28 of Benton and Little Rock.

Marvin L. Mayhan of North Little Rock died in the wreckage on Highway 67 north of Texarkana. The crash caused the car to burst into flames. Mayhan was identified through papers while Love's fingerprints were sent to the FBI in Washington.

Love died several hours after the wreck in a Texarkana hospital.

Sheriff Rudy Burgess said a neighbor of the elder Love read a description of the victim and drove Love to Texarkana to make the identification.

Love said he had not been in contact with his son for over two months but knew of no connection between him and Mayhan.

Burgess said the younger Love had been seen in Mayhan's company in Searcy and Little Rock prior to the wreck. He said they were probably on a trip together.

DOROTHY DIX

Wife in Near Accident With Leering Husband

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband of 30 years has taken to leering!

When at home he sits on the patio and leers at our neighbors—young, attractive married women. When we go driving he leers at women in other cars. Some like it, others don't. Frankly, I don't, not that I'm jealous but, I hate to be made a fool.

I realize a man gets a kick out of looking at a pretty girl and that's okay by me. But leering is something else. When the get-around girls catch him leering back, like the blond who has recently moved into our neighborhood, I actually had to drag my husband in to eat his dinner.

The other day when we were out driving, he started leering at the woman in the car alongside us. She returned the leer and we almost had an accident. I was scared stiff. When I protested my husband cursed me.

We have two wonderful boys, now grown. Our first 28 years were all a wife could ask for. The last two years have been an other story. As one neighbor put it, "Your husband looks like the clothes off me."

Is there something wrong with him? Should I get a job or stay home and wrestle the problem with him. We've just passed our 50th birthday — Red Head.

Dear Red Head: There's nothing wrong with your husband that time won't cure. Many middle-aged men go through this silly season, particularly those who fear a waning of physical power.

Stay home and help your husband regain his perspective on life. Invite those attractive neighbors and their husbands in for an evening of fun. Laughingly refer to his ogling before them. Buy him a toy spy glass. Give him pin up girl calendars until he cries quits!

Dear Helen: I have a happy home, wonderful parents and many friends. But I also have a heartache. I'm 15 in love with a boy of 17 who was once in a gang fight and placed on parole for a year.

Mother doesn't object to my going out with him yet she won't accept him in our home. He respects her and me alike; hasn't been in trouble since that fight and is truly a good boy. Is there any way in which I can get Mother to really like him? — Wonderer

Dear Wonderer: I should have misgivings about this boy myself, were I your mother. He must have been in the wrong else the police would not have put him on parole. Even though he has reformed, you are too young to give him the special understanding he needs. In fairness to yourself and your family, stop dating him until you are more mature. Deliberately date the decent boys. Use them for your yardstick.

Dear Helen: Will you settle a disagreement between my sister and me. She is 12, I am 14. She said red and pink go together. I say they clash. Who is right — Don't Agree

Dear Don't Agree: Ordinarily I would pass your question along to the interior decorating department but, since it involves a difference of opinion between sisters, I shall answer it and, I hope, point a moral. The Chinese combine red and pink with dramatic effectiveness. They probably got their inspiration from sunsets; fiery red fading to delicate pink as the glow diminishes. You and your sister would be like those two colors, instead of clashing, compliment or be a foil one for the other!

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Marital Harmony."

Atkins Man Dies

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Charles H. Isenman, president of the Atkins Pickle Co., of Atkins, died Sunday in a Little Rock hospital. He was 58.

Plane Falls, Two Arkansas Die

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP)—A young West Helena family plunged to disaster in a wooded section near the Paragould Country Club Sunday when the engine on their private plane stopped at 300 feet.

Mrs. Laven Kelley, 25, was killed and her body was burned in the fire that followed the crash. Her husband, 28, and their son, Allen, 7, were critically injured.

They were treated at a Paragould hospital and rushed to a hospital in Memphis.

Kelley is manager of a West Helena food store. The family had lived in Newport and Paragould and was visiting friends here over the weekend.

They took off from Paragould airport and the plane dove into woods about three miles northwest of town. A doctor who treated Kelley, the pilot, said the injured man told him the motor quit. Kelley was quoted as saying he tried to make a forced landing on a farm about one mile from the country club.

Barge Experiment

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A New Orleans barge firm will tow six barges up the Arkansas River to Little Rock Nov. 1. The 300 to 350-ton barges will be used for rental purposes, officials said. The river is expected to be navigable as far upstream as Tulsa by 1967, scheduled date for completion of a $1.2 billion river project.

Lawn care versus health care

Even with a power mower or available, small boys today are disdainful of anything under two dollars for mowing your lawn. Since the average lawn gets cut twenty-five times a season, that's fifty dollars or more a year. Yet the average family does not spend much more than this on doctor bills... not as much on medicines.

licene plates. The Vopo captain in charge of the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint charged Lightner had been drinking and deliberately injured a Vopo guard by ramming him against another car.

A U.S. spokesman gave this account of Sunday night's events:

At 7:15 p.m. Lightner, accompanied by his wife, arrived at the American checkpoint on Friedrichstrasse in his privately owned American-licensed sedan. The Vopos refused to let him go into the East zone unless he showed his identification. Lightner refused and asked for a Soviet officer to be called.

By 8 p.m. no Soviet officer had appeared. Lightner drove past the Vopo guards and through a zig-zag barrier beyond the Communist checkpoint. There he was stopped again.

At 9 p.m., eight American MPs led by Lt. Claude L. Stults Jr., of Livingston, Tenn., moved across the border and formed a walking escort for Lightner and his wife, who drove forward to Leipzigerstrasse, round the first block and back into the American sector.

At 9:15 p.m. Lightner, alone in his car, drove in a second time, again escorted by armed MPs. After five minutes they returned to the U.S. sector.

At 9:40 p.m. the U.S. provost marshal, Lt. Col. Robert A. Sabolyk, crossed the border to make a personal protest to the Soviet officer who had meanwhile appeared at the communist checkpoint.

At 10:40 p.m., a convoy of American, British and French cars, including Lightner, drove into and out of East Berlin without escort and without hindrance.

Three Patton tanks and two U.S. armored personnel carriers drove into Mehring Square, 700 yards from the checkpoint, shortly after the MPs marched over the border.

It was believed to be the first armed American incursion into Communist territory in Berlin since the city was split into occupation sectors after the end of World War II.

The Vopo captain said grimly, "The Americans will hear more about this."

$244 Million Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansans paid $244,023,000 in federal taxes in 1961, the Internal Revenue Service said. National tax collections totaled $94.4 billion, of which $46 billion came from individuals. The overall tax total was $2.6 billion more than in fiscal 1960.

Harris of El Dorado (at left), sales manager for Lion Oil Company. Left to right are Harris, Harold Lemley of Nashville, Carl Bramlett of Hope, and L. D. Deaton of Murfreesboro. The expressions of appreciation were made Wednesday night at a "thank you" dinner held in Texarkana for about 60 Lion dealers, distributors, and their wives. Others present from the Hope area were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. James, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Purdie and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kellam. except feel terribly sorry for the persons concerned.

"We had so little warning... It was impossible for us to control..."

Rector's wife recently underwent a serious operation. He went to visit her in a hospital soon after his train arrived in Pine Bluff.

The 150-mile run from Jonesboro to Pine Bluff was tangled with circumstance.

A few hours before the Stuttgart wreck, Robert P. Brown, 49, son of Stuttgart, crashed his car into the side of another freight train at the same crossing where the other wreck occurred. It was one mile east of Stuttgart on state Highway 146. Brown was not seriously hurt.

The Negroes were en route to Little Rock to visit Cleo Smith's son, who had been run over by his father's tractor last summer. He is still in University Hospital, was $2.6 billion more than in fiscal 1960.

Minutemen Hold Field Maneuvers

COLLINSVILLE, Ill. (AP)—The "Minutemen" held what they called successful guerrilla field maneuvers Sunday despite the confiscation of part of their arsenal.

One of the group's leaders, Rich Lauchli, 35, a one-time paratroop sergeant from Collinsville, was arrested and some heavy weapons were seized Saturday.

Eleven persons, including Lauchli, a woman and a teenage boy, were arrested Saturday. They were charged with "willing and unlawful possession of illegal firearms." His arrest came upon the complaint of Philip Taylor, Shiloh, Ill., township supervisor, after the group set up a weapons display in Shiloh.

Lauchli, free on $1,000 bond, is to appear in magistrate's court Nov. 3. Seized with Lauchli were two Browning automatic rifles, a Browning machinegun and an M4 automatic rifle. He brought a 60 mm mortar and a 57 mm anti-tank rifle for Sunday's demonstrations.

The minutemen practiced an attack on an enemy outpost, movement behind a screen from smoke grenades and a skirmish line charge.

DePugh's wife, mother of five children, charged with the rest, lugging an automatic rifle.

DePugh said similar maneuvers have been held in San Antonio, Tex., Omaha, Neb., Philadelphia, Columbus, Ohio, Kansas City, Mo., and Newark, N.J.

Lauchli described his arrest as a "misunderstanding about the nature and purpose of our organization."

He said he had legally bought the weapons and they are "used solely for instruction. All are deactivated and none of our members have any ammunition for them."

DePugh said "we're just loyal American citizens who are tired of being pushed around by the Communists and who want to do something to stem the tide of their advance."

DePugh says he and nine other men founded the Minutemen in June 1960 and it has grown to a nationwide membership of some 25,000.

Purchases by Arkansas farm families currently account for 40 percent of the state's retail sales. Arkansas bank deposits totaled more than 1.3 billion dollars on Dec. 31. Polk's Bank Directory says.

night. Mrs. Farrer and her three children were walking toward the service station at which their husband and father, Charles Farrer, is an attendant.

They had not been used to seeing a train at the Altheimer crossing at that time of day, but Rector's engine 630 was running two hours late because of the other wreck.

The two older children darted across in front of the engine and Mrs. Farrer grabbed Charlotte and started after them. Coroner Frank Reed said later he did not know whether she intended to bring them back or show them across.

But the train hit her and the baby, and their bodies were dragged 200 feet.

Dag Cited With Nobel Peace Prize

OSLO, Norway (AP)—The Nobel Peace Prize for 1961 was awarded today to Dag Hammarskjold, who perished on a peace mission in the Congo.

The delayed peace prize for 1960 went to Albert John Luthuli, a Zulu Christian leader in South Africa, for his efforts to alleviate racial discrimination. Luthuli is the first African to receive the prize, worth 250,232 kroner—$48,640. The Nobel Peace Prize Committee of the Norwegian Storting (Parliament) last year postponed its award.

Hammarskjold became the first man to receive the prize posthumously. The U.N. secretary-general was killed Sept. 18 when his plane crashed en route to Ndola, Northern Rhodesia. He was seeking to end the fighting between Katanga and U.N. forces by negotiating with President Moise Tshombe of Katanga Province.

Hammarskjold, Swedish aristocrat who headed the executive branch of the United Nations from 1953 until his death, was mentioned as a candidate last year after organizing a U.N. force that halted the chaos in the Congo in mid-summer of 1960. However, the closing date for the list of candidates is Feb. 1 of the year of the award.

The prize committee's statement gave no specific reason for Hammarskjold's award. The prize will be placed at the disposal of Hammarskjold's estate.

In view of the early closing date for nominations, Hammarskjold must have already been under consideration at the time of his death.

Luthuli, a former Zulu chief, is one of the most respected African leaders among South Africa's 10 million blacks.

Head of the now outlawed African National Congress, Luthuli has been banned from public life and held in detention periodically for most of the past eight years by South Africa's white supremacist government.

His moderation earned the respect of those South African whites who want the government

Man Reports Killing Woman

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Police said today that a man arrested on an intoxication charge Sunday had reported that he killed a woman in Alabama. But officers tended to be skeptical of his story.

Detectives said the man gave his name as George D. Mickey, 45, and told them he killed a woman known to him only as "Vel" near Dadeville, Ala., and threw the body in the Tallapoosa River.

Officers said a jailer in Alabama reported he had no knowledge of such a crime, but would check with the sheriff.

Investigators said the man told them he met the woman while he was hitchhiking between Brinkley and Forrest City, Ark. and that they had traveled to Alabama together.

At Dadeville, Sheriff Woodrow Barnes said no body has been found in the river. He discounted the man's story.

Barnes said Mickey had "told the story before," but that officers were never able to substantiate it.

Negro Pleads Guilty to Murder

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Eddie Lee Charleston, a 21-year-old Negro, pleaded guilty today to second degree murder today and was sentenced to 21 years in prison in Pulaski Circuit Court.

Charleston was originally accused of first degree murder in the fatal shooting of another Negro, David Cook, 42, last Nov. 1 in a cafe here.

He pleaded guilty after the state agreed to the reduced charge.

Big Teams Run Over Opposition

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the college football season at the halfway point, Michigan State's big and bruising Spartans today headed the list of candidates for the national championship.

Duffy Daugherty's club has five Big Ten opponents in a row on its schedule starting with Indiana this Saturday. But it's unlikely that the Spartans will see another team as rough as Notre Dame.

Michigan State (4-0) just did beat the Irish, 17-7, Saturday after sputtering along well into the third quarter. Notre Dame (3-1) scored the first touchdown of the year against Daugherty's behemoths.

The big factor in Michigan State's favor is the schedule. The Spartans do not meet either Iowa (4-0) which steamrolled Wisconsin, 47-15, to remain one of the five major teams still undefeated and untied, or Ohio State, (3-0-1). The Buckeyes had a tough time with Northwestern Saturday, finally pulling it out, 10-0.

Iowa and Ohio State still are very much in the running for the national title, but they come to grips on Nov. 4.

Mississippi (5-0), Texas (5-0) and Alabama (5-0) also have a chance of coming out on top. Ole Miss and Alabama, two Southeastern Conference powers, do not clash until Nov. 10.

Mississippi, knocked out of first place in the AP poll by Michigan State, clobbered Tulan Saturday night, 41-0. Texas smothered Arkansas, 33-7, and Alabama cut down Tennessee, 34-3 in a regional TV per-game. This week Mississippi effect records include Rutgers, (4-0) and Vanderbilt, Texas takes on Colorado (4-0), Memphis State Rice, and Alabama meets Houston (5-0) and Bowling Green (5-0).

On Nov. 4, Mississippi must play Louisiana State (4-1), another top team.

Two Weeks That Shook the World

In two convulsive weeks, just five years ago, great changes came about first in Hungary and then in the Middle East.

Oct. 29—While an illusion of peace gripped Hungary, the world's attention was diverted to high drama in the Middle East. Israel, eager to destroy the growing military might of her ancient enemy, Egypt, launched an invasion pointed toward Cairo.

Oct. 30—Britain and France were still smarting from Egyptian President Nasser's takeover of the Suez Canal earlier in the year—a seizure prompted by the West's withdrawal of backing for the Aswan Dam project. After calling for a cease-fire, Anglo-French forces, which had been massing on Cyprus for two months, invaded Egypt near Port Said—to "protect" the canal. Feelings in the U.S. and elsewhere in the West ran high against the invasion. But Britain and France vetoed a U.S. resolution in the U.N. which sought to halt the action.

Famed Movie Maker Dies at Age of 83

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Joseph M. Schenck, who made $1.50 a week as an immigrant boy in New York and a fortune as lord of a celluloid empire in Hollywood, is dead at 83.

Schenck helped develop such diverse talents as Fatty Arbuckle and Marilyn Monroe and had a hand in founding four major entertainment enterprises during his long career.

He was generally an off-stage figure, but scandal once brought him prominence—and a brief prison term.

He died in his sleep Sunday at his Beverly Hills home. He had been in failing health since he suffered a broken hip more than two years ago.

Buster Keaton, John Barrymore and Constance Talmadge were among those who achieved stardom under Schenck's guidance. He oversaw direction of films starring Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin and Rudolph Valentino.

He was one of the organizers of Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corp. and United Artists Theaters, Inc. He later formed Magna Corp. with the late Mike Todd and at the time of his death was head of Joseph M. Schenck Enterprises, a motion picture producing firm.

Schenck married actress Norma Talmadge, sister of Constance, in 1916. She divorced him in 1934 and he never remarried. He lived quietly and alone in later years.

Schenck made a star of Fatty Arbuckle and had a backlog of Arbuckle films ready for release when Arbuckle was accused of causing the death of a girl dancer at a wild party. He was never convicted but his films were practically worthless and Schenck lost millions.

He was convicted in 1941 of two of the state's great industrial pioneers, began his dream of an interconnected power empire for term. The sentence was suspended in 1942 when he served four months in the Federal Reformatory for Men at Joliet, Ill.

Chargers Are Still Tops in AFL Race

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Diego's Chargers undoubtedly favor a change in coaches for some other team. Especially a team that could do them some good as a result.

Not that San Diego needs any help in the American Football League race since it has won all its games. But when Houston beat Dallas 38-7, through the inspiration of a new coach, it virtually wrapped up the Western Division championship for the Chargers.

With seven games to play San Diego is 3½ games ahead of second-place Dallas.

San Diego clouded Oakland 41-10 Sunday for its seventh straight league triumph. Dallas took its worst licking in its AFL tenure when Houston, directed by new coach Wally Lemm, succeeded in edging Lou Rymkus, broke the Texas hex.

The first thing Lemm did was to bring George Blanda to the bench where Rymkus had sat him, and let the pro veteran pass for three touchdowns and kick a 53-yard field goal. It was just one yard under the league record of 54 yards set by George Fleming of Oakland against Denver Oct. 1.

Oakland took the lead on San Diego with a 28-yard pass from Tom Flores to Bob Coolbaugh but scored 16 points in sparring Bos' toothpaste. Paul Lowe ripped off a couple of long touchdowns runs to shoot the Chargers out front. They added 96 points—42 more than second-place Jack Spikes of Dallas.

Time for Early Yule Shopper

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Here it is mid-October, which means it's time for me to get rolling with my annual early bird Christmas shopping service.

For the benefit of new subscribers I should explain that this service, which comes to you at no extra cost, is designed to solve your gift problems even before you have them.

As an ecumenical gesture, I go through the Christmas gift catalogs that have been picked up at my house since July and pick out the choice selections.

This saves you the trouble of wading through your own catalogs for gift ideas in the desperation days of December. So let's get at it.

First, a few general observations. Christmas this year can be more artificial than ever. You no longer have to rely on Mother Nature for any of the trappings of Christmas. Aluminum Christmas trees are, of course, already old hats. But these can be made more authentic by spraying them with pine scent, or some other woody aroma. Or, if you prefer, with pine scent, or some other woody aroma. Or, if you prefer, with pine scent, or some other woody aroma.

For an added touch, as one critic suggests, "Grow apples on your Christmas tree." The apples are made of satin, three for a dollar. Guaranteed unbreakable and, of course, inedible.

So much for decorations. Now for some gift suggestions: Need something for your hypochondriac friends? How about a Lathrop pill case with four separate compartments for tranquilizers, vitamins, etc.?

Each compartment has a little clock that points to the time of dosage. Ends pill-taking confusion. Ladies, are you tired of having your sloppy husband mess up the kitchen with spewing beer foam. Then give him a new type of beer opener that has a tiny umbrella brought about a tie for the lead attached. Keeps him from getting between New York and Boston, squirts in the eye, and protects Buffalo is only a half-game back and Houston the same although fourth in percentage.

Denver shoved over 17 points in the last quarter to break a 10-10 tie and go on to victory.

Versatile Gino Cappelletti not throw in a tube of "spiked toothpaste." Flavored with bourbon and Scotch.

Better yet, give him or her a $3.30 bottle of enamel that spreads to it steadily as they went along.

And here's a novelty: Round playing cards. An ideal gift for the squares on your shopping list.

For wives and girl friends, fellows, there is a new type of certain special way so that the sweater can be brushed while it is being worn. With luck, you can do the brushing.

And, finally, the perfect gift for those who like to putter around with potted plants—a can of "perfumed manure."

The average daily attendance in Arkansas public schools increased more than five percent between 1950 and 1960, although the total school enumeration went down 4.6 percent during the same period.

UAW Pushing for Chrysler Pact

DETROIT (AP) - The United Auto Workers Union was pushing for local-level contract settlements with Chrysler Corp. today under the cloud of a new threat to the union's profit-sharing agreement with American Motors Corp.

UAW negotiators represent 60,000 Chrysler workers.

In Milwaukee an official of the UAW's Local 75, which earlier approved the UAW-American Motors pact, said several hundred members now were demanding a second vote on the contract.

The 9,000-member local approved the contract Oct. 1. The request for a second vote came following a meeting Friday night. A spokesman for the local said a matter of principle, rather than opposition to items in the contract, brought the request.

The UAW already has ordered a second election for 12,000-member Local 72 at the Kenosha, Wis., AMC plant. Local 72 rejected the new contract by a narrow margin Oct. 8. The rejection by Local 72 was over working conditions, such as wash-up time, and not the profit-sharing phase of the contract.

NAACP Wins Round in High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) - The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People won a round in the Supreme Court today in its battle against an Alabama order which the association says bars it from activities in that state.

Acting without hearing arguments, the Supreme Court directed that the U.S. District Court in Alabama rule on the NAACP complaint.

NAACP appealed to the high tribunal after the U.S. Circuit court in New Orleans, La., said the complaint should be acted on first by Alabama state courts. The Association's appeal said the NAACP believed the state courts would never act on requests for a hearing.

A 1956 complaint by the Alabama attorney general led to the litigation. The complaint charged the NAACP was doing business in the state without qualifying as an out-of-state corporation. The state obtained an order from a state court which the NAACP said bars it from organization activities, and also from taking any steps to qualify to do business in Alabama.

The high tribunal issued an order which set aside the ruling of the Circuit Court and directed the U.S. District Court in Montgomery, Ala., to try the issues involved.

Clay Blames E. Germans for Incident

BERLIN (AP) - Gen. Lucius D. Clay today blamed Communist East German police for "irresponsible and illegal behavior" causing an incident on the border involving U.S. troops.

Taylor, President Kennedy's special envoy in Berlin, spoke up after a squad of U.S. troops twice marched into Red-ruled East Berlin Sunday night with bayonets fixed to their rifles.

Clay, top State Department official in Berlin, East German police had stopped Lightner's car. The East Germans did not try to interfere with the U.S. soldiers.

The U.S. soldiers were backed up by three Patton tanks that moved up to the border. The tanks stood guard through the night but were withdrawn this morning. But East German police at the border were reinforced.

The behavior of the East German police, "created the incident and forced the United States to send a military escort into the Soviet sector to assist the U.S. minister in exercising his right of free entry and free movement in the Soviet sector," the statement said.

Lightner is deputy chief of the U.S. mission, ranking behind the U.S. ambassador to West Germany. As top State Department official in Berlin, he holds the rank of minister.

Protests were expected from the Communists against the action of the American troops in escorting Lightner into East Berlin.

Communists to Eliminate Opposition

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP) - The Soviet Communist party's 22nd congress went into its sixth session today after delegates were assured that the so-called anti-party group will not be allowed to rise again.

Premier Khrushchev's economic expert, Alexei Kosygin, took up the condemnation Saturday of the group led by ex-Premier Georgi Malenkov and ex-Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov. Khrushchev revived the subject Tuesday, and speakers each day since have been echoing him.

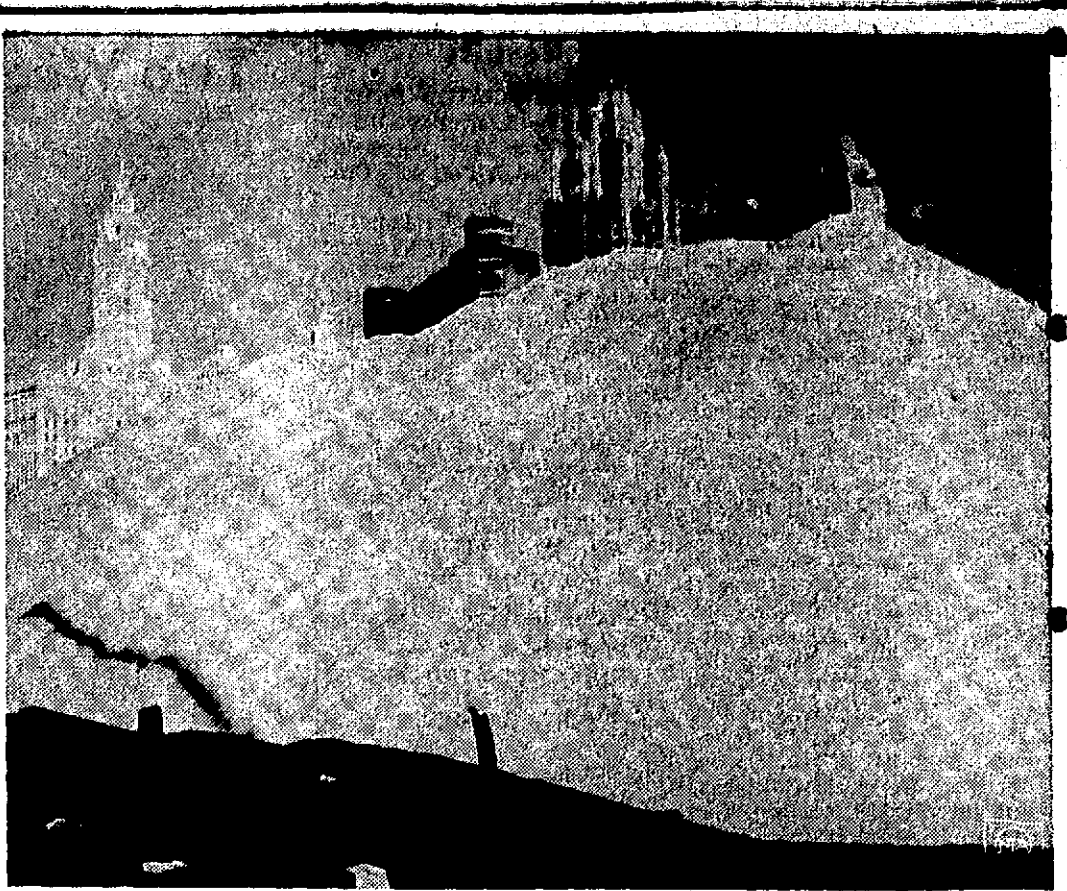

While extolling Khrushchev for his peaceful coexistence policy, Kosygin emphasized that the days of the "personality cult" - as exemplified by the adulation of Stalin - were over.

Kosygin, a member of the ruling party Presidium, told the delegates that the Molotov-Malenkov faction exposed in 1957 is not being given another raking over out of fear.

Kosygin said, "Our party is strong and united as never before. But we are doing this so as to show again to the party and people where the personality cult leads, what irrevocable damage the anti-party group could have inflicted to the party and government. We want the lessons of history never to be forgotten."

Molotov and Malenkov have managed to keep on the government payroll in second-rate jobs but the barrage against them is regarded by many as an indication they may be in for further trouble.

First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, one of the old Stalin boys in the Kremlin hierarchy who has clung to power, has demanded all members of the anti-party group who tried to over-

Chapter XIX

Both pilots were dead. The knowledge made him feel weak and sick. It must have happened while Laura was sitting beside him at the co-pilot's control column. He remembered the sudden drastic lurch of the plane; Lynch must have got the door open against the wind - stream and pushed or thrown both men into the sea.

"What is it?" Ise asked.

"Go on with your story," he said hoarsely.

"I went onto the plane. No one saw me. The baggage compartment was full of boxes and mail bags. I hid in the back of it. I thought I could talk to Don Willie when the plane landed. But the fire started, and they went away in the truck. I took the fire thing -"

"She shrugged wearily.

"Whether I believe you or not doesn't make a bit of difference. And why you stowed away doesn't interest me at all." Beecher flipped his cigarette out the door. "You're all a pack of liars. If you make a fool of me again it's my own fault. Get this straight; there's nothing on my mind but staying alive. My only interest is whether you're going to help or hurt my chances."

"How can I help?"

"Collect everything in the plane we might be able to use."

The ship's emergency ladder was hooked to the threshold of the doorway. Beecher climbed down to the ground. He walked around the plane and studied the props, the engines and tail assembly. There were stones the size of coconuts wedged in front of the tires. He kicked them out of the way, and checked the landing gear. The plane might fly. But there was little gas left. About 2 gallons, he guessed. He could expect about a mile to the gallon, and that would still leave him 70 miles from Goulamine.

In the shade you could live a couple of days with a quart of water. But sun and exertion cut the time in half. The survival range of a quart of water was 15 to 20 miles. You could walk that far providing there was occasional shade to rest in.

There was coffee on the plane Beecher thought. He climbed back into the ship.

Ise had piled supplies in the clearing in front of the baggage compartment. There were first-aid kits in canvas sacks, two suitcases which he knew belonged to Lynch and Laura, and an aluminum stretcher. He saw the bag of sandwiches and thermos of coffee.

Ise was watching him. "You look hot," she said. "Do you want some coffee?"

"Is there some left?"

"I didn't drink any." She turned from him and sat on the arm of a seat. "I left it for you. You want to live so much more than I do," Beecher had said it didn't make any difference whether or not she was telling the truth; but that wasn't the case. If Don Willie had left her here there was a chance he'd be coming back. Beecher realized he would have to take the plane up, if only to put the 20 miles between himself and Don Willie. Then he remembered the diamond bright flash he had seen below them as they flew south into the desert from Goulamine. Trees circling a bowl shaped depression, and a gleam of something through scrubby branches. It might be shale or mica or lime rock, he knew, but the trees were evidence of water somewhere in the area. He'd have to hit it like an arrow. But Lynch had given him only one heading out of Goulamine, and it would be simple to turn that bearing around 180 degrees and fly back to the oaks.

Beecher went forward to the pilot's compartment and tested the control column and electrical system.

Ise came to the door of the cockpit and watched him with a curious little frown.

Beecher said: "I'm going to try to get this crate into the air. You want to come along?"

"Yes. There's nothing to wait for here. Don Willie isn't coming back."

That's true, whether you believe it or not. I'd rather crash in the plane than die of thirst."

The engines roared with solid power as the plane swept across the smooth flat shale. Beecher felt the ship straining to fly; he pulled the control back slowly and smiled as the ground fell away from them, and the plane swayed softly on cushions of air.

Beecher had belied the plane in, with metal shrieking ominously against sand and shale; it was all he could do, for the seemingly flat area in front of the depression was pitted with rocks which would have slashed his tires into ribbons.

The quart thermos of coffee was nearly full, and there were seven sandwiches left, serrano ham on buttered slices of thick white bread. They ate one sandwich each, and finished the thermos of coffee, and then, while Ise put the food away, Beecher made a double bend on the floor with blankets and pillows he found in the luggage racks above the seats.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—

"What happened?"

The Arkansas Razorbacks took a good, old-fashioned (23-7) whipping Saturday underfoot of the Texas Longhorns.

That doesn't mean the Razorbacks are out of the Southwest Conference race. But it does mean they'll have to do some readjusting.

Primarily, they'll have to get their stymied offense back into action. That shouldn't be too difficult, since they meet Northwest Louisiana State Saturday in the greatest lead pipe cinch of the year outside of the spring training game.

What some disappointed fans may have forgotten by the time the dust cleared at Razorback Stadium Saturday is that Arkansas has been 2-1 at this point in the last two SVC seasons, and both times the Hogs have won the title or a share of it.

Both times, they've depended on somebody else to knock off a team that beat them. In '59 Texas beat the Hogs and lost later and it was a three-way tie, with TCU.

Last year, Baylor beat the Hogs early and then lost twice and Arkansas took the title with only one defeat.

It could happen again, although Saturday Texas looked like the strongest team the southwest has produced in years.

The Northwest Louisiana State game will give Arkansas a chance to regain its equilibrium before Texas A&M, Rice, SMU and Texas Tech. in that order.

Texas gained 402 yards on offense while stopping the Hogs with 124 Saturday. Texas quarterback Mike Collen passed three yards to Jack Collins for one touchdown and ran 19 yards for another.

Tailback Tommy Ford ran three yards for one, tailback James Saxton went one yard, and Jerry Cook went over from the two for the other Texas touchdowns.

Arkansas scored in the third quarter on a two-yard pass from quarterback George McKinney to end Jimmy Collier. The Longhorns made four long touchdown drives and turned an Arkansas fumble on the 20 into their fifth score.

It was the fifth straight easy victory for Texas.

Ford gained 97 yards for the Longhorns, fullback Ray Poage got 81, and Cook got 73. Lance Alworth led Arkansas with 23.

Tech Blasts Teachers in AIC Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas Tech came from behind Saturday night in Russellville to beat Arkansas State Teachers 16-7 and take the inside track to the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference championship.

It was a fine display of clutch football by the Wonder Boys, who were winning their 17th straight regular season game. They have their eye on their second straight AIC title and they'll get it unless some underdog upsets them.

Halfback Bill Curtis was the big man. He ran one yard for Tech's first touchdown, then with the score 7-6 in the third quarter, he ran 46 yards for the touchdown that won it.

Tech added a 39-yard field goal by Buddy Cagel with 15 seconds to play.

Harding moved into third place in the conference standings Saturday night with a 22-7 victory over Arkansas A&M. Southern State drubbed Ozarks 49-7 and Henderson took a 21-14 beating from John Tarleton State of Texas.

This week Tech has a non-conference bout with Southeast Oklahoma Friday night in Russellville. Teachers meets dangerous Southern State in Conway Saturday night.

Teachers scored against Tech on a 73-yard drive in the first half. Quarterback Herbie Cook went the last two yards and Ronnie Roach kicked the point.

Harding raced to a 22-0 halftime lead and held on for its victory over A&M. Fullback Steve Smith crashed twice from the one and quarterback Tommy Carter went in from the three. Jim King kicked a 15-yard field goal.

Southern State quarterback Lan-

Who forgot to load the shotgun.

That was the big question in the National Football League today after the Chicago Bears completely muffed San Francisco's high-powered shotgun offense and knocked the 49ers out of a share of the Western Conference lead with a 31-0 walloping.

Clicking with an effective aerial combination with castoff quarterback Billy Wade pitching to rookie end Mike Ditka, the Bears moved smoothly Sunday against the usually stubborn 49ers defense and shackled San Francisco's three-headed shotgun with a 5-2-4 defensive deployment.

Chicago allowed the 49ers, who had averaged over 40 points in three previous games, to penetrate past midfield only once while Wade's accurate passer found their target for four Chicago touchdowns. Ditka grabbed two—covering 47 and 15 yards.

The defeat left the 49ers and Bears with 4-2 records, a game behind the first place Green Bay Packers, who whipped the Minnesota Vikings 33-7 and may have located a replacement for Army-bound Paul Hornung in hard-running Tom Moore.

Philadelphia's league champion Eagles rolled to a 43-7 victory over Dallas and remained in a tie for the top spot in the Eastern Conference with the New York Giants. 24-14 winners over the Los Angeles Rams.

Cleveland (4-2) stayed one game back of the Eastern leader by beating Pittsburgh's ambitious Steelers 30-20 with the key help of Lou Groza's three field goals. Baltimore edged Detroit 17-14 and St. Louis blanked Washington, the only winless team in the circuit, 24-0.

Moore averaged 9.9 yards in 16 carries after entering the game for the Packers (5-1) in the first quarter when Hornung league leading scorer to report for active duty Oct. 30, aggravated a knee injury. Hornung, however, kept at his kicking duties against the Vikings (1-5), and booted field goals of 13, 18, 17 and 16 yards plus three extra points to run his point total to 92.

The Eagles (5-1) used the bull-like charges of Billy Barnes and the passing of Sonny Jurgensen to outclass the Cowboys (3-3).

With the Giants (5-1) trailing 14-10 in the fourth quarter, old reliable Chuck Conerly, benched for Y.A.ittle earlier this season, gained 10 yards to Kyle Rot and 37 to Del Shofner for the clinching score against the Rams (1-5).

Bobby Mitchell scored three TDs on short runs for the Browns (4-2), but it was Groza's third field goal—a 12-yarder in the fourth quarter—that subdued the Steelers (1-5).

Steve Myhra booted a 45-yard field goal with eight seconds remaining as the Colts (3-3) came from behind in the final period and edged the Lions (3-3).

Ralph Guglielmi, who came to the Cards from Washington, passed for two scores as St. Louis (3-3) handed the Redskins (0-6) their second shutout in succession and their 14th loss in a row over a two-season span.

Lewis Captures Porker Tourney

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Charles Lewis III of Little Rock, runnerup in the last two National Amateur golf tournaments, won the first annual Razorback Invitational Amateur tourney here Sunday.

He beat Steve Creekmore Jr. of Fort Smith 6 and 5 in the final round. Creekmore was tournament medalist.

Lewis was two over par with a 32 when he closed out Creekmore on the 13th hole. Lewis was three up at the end of nine holes.

Shofner passed 27 yards to Larry Dillard for one touchdown and ran three yards twice for two more scores against Ozarks. Jerry Freppon ran 8 and 2 yards for touchdowns and halfback Dave Ape ran 70 yards for a score and gained 100 yards rushing. Quarterback Dick Hayes hit end Joe Lodermark on two touchdown passes for Tarleton against Henderson. Dale Smith's 25-yard touchdown run in the third quarter won it.

Halfback Dick Jolly was on the receiving end of an 85-yard touchdown play for Henderson and later caught a 20-yard pass for the other Reddie score.

Ft. Smith Is Still Tops in Arkansas

Fort Smith stayed atop the Associated Press Arkansas schoolboy football poll this week and Little Rock Hall, the team it meets Friday night, clung close behind in second place.

All seven sportswriters on the AP board voted for Fort Smith first and all but one voted for Hall second.

The meeting between those teams Friday night probably will produce the Big Nine Conference champion.

Benton fell from third to fourth place this week and Jonesboro climbed to third place with its seventh straight victory, 27-6 over Blytheville.

Hall beat Benton 9-7 last week and Fort Smith beat Texarkana, 40-13.

The most striking thing about this week's poll is that Little Rock Central, Arkansas schoolboy giant in ages past, is tied with Class A Clarksville for 14th place. The Tigers are 3-4 after a 20-0 loss to El Dorado, ranked sixth this week.

Camden, the Region 4A leader and another unbeaten, ranks fifth.

Here is the poll, with first place votes and records in parentheses, and total points, based on 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc., at right.

1. Fort Smith (7) (7-0) 70
2. Little Rock Hall (7-0) 63
3. Jonesboro (7-0) 50
4. Benton (6-1) 49
5. Camden (7-0) 44
6. El Dorado (4-2-1) 34
7. Smackover (5-1-1) 21
8. Springdale (7-1) 15
9. Pine Bluff (3-3-1) 7
10. Jacksonville (6-0) 7

Others: Van Buren and Fayetteville (tied), Blytheville, Little Rock Central and Clarksville (tied).

Yerger Loses to Jones High 22-6

The Yerger High Tigers lost another game Friday night to the powerful Jones High Dragons at North Little Rock by a score of 22 to 6.

The inexperienced Tigers played hard but were overpowered by the Dragons. Hope's TD came on a pass from Phillips to Yerger. The extra point try failed.

The Coach was well pleased with the team's showing and indicated this was one of their best games of the season.

Snowstorm Maroons Deer Hunters

BURLEY, Idaho (AP)—A sudden snowstorm marooned hundreds of hunters south of here Saturday on the first day of deer season. Scores were feared still stranded by four-foot drifts today.

Many wore light clothing and carried few provisions, expecting to be in the hills only a day.

Two or three thousand hunters thronged to three game units south of Burley and Twin Falls Saturday.

One hunter died of a heart attack and two others were reported missing south of Burley, where up to two feet of snow fell.

"It's hard to say just how many are still stranded," said Police Chief George E. Warrell of Burley. "A bunch of the hunters went back in and we can't figure out who's lost and who isn't."

More snow was forecast today. Authorities planned air drops of food if the weather permitted. A low ceiling hampered aerial scouting and air drops Sunday.

Ground parties, using snow plows and heavy vehicles, worked around the clock.

The storm also hit southward in northern Utah where about 150,000 hunters were out for the opening of deer season.
